The Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce
Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct & Ethics

The Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce strives to reinforce and promote a strong business community through sound practices that support social and economic development. To that end, the Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors adopted the following Code of Conduct as the encouraged method of practice by business owners or managers who are members of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce.

Code of Conduct

As a member of the Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce, I/we recognize that membership is a privilege and that a membership brings with it the responsibility to assure that all members understand and commit to the following membership undertaking:

The code of conduct shall, without limitation, require members to:

Conduct business and professional activities in a reputable manner so as to reflect honorably upon the business community.

When possible, make an effort to participate in the functions and activities of the Chamber and promote the enhancement of business growth within the greater Kingston area.

Refrain from publicly disparaging the business practices of fellow members and refrain from condoning or engaging in misrepresentation or unethical practices.

Conduct business in a fair and ethical manner, respecting the dignity and rights of clients, customers, vendors, associates, and peers regardless of race, color, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation or physical appearance.

Hold fellow members accountable for upholding the principles described in the Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce Code of Conduct & Ethics.
