Kingston Wine Walk

Surviving one of the hottest days of the year was a little easier in Kingston on August 20th. There was cold beer, delicious wines, hard ciders and great food everywhere! The 6th Annual Wine (And Brew) Walk presented by d'Vine Wines and The Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce, was a great success. Nearly 400 "Walkers" took to the streets with custom printed wine glass in hand to travel from venue to venue. The retail businesses hosting wineries report excellent sales and the non-retail venues were really pleased by the number of new folks through their doors making some great connections. The Walkers enjoyed tastes of over 40 different wines. Beer & cider from 4 local breweries were a welcome addition to the event. Live music, dancing, hula demonstrations... It was a blast! Look for Kingston's next Wine & Brew Walk to take place earlier next year... late May or early June. August was just too hot!

KINGSTON SALON SWAPS HARBOR HAIR DESIGN & SALON SORELLINA

Lynn Hammond, Hair Stylist and long-time owner of Harbor Hair Design, is thrilled to be open in her new salon located in the Albertson's Mall on Highway 104. In her new, larger location, she will be able to accommodate more stylists and clients. Lynn specializes in Color Correction (including free consultations), Foil Highlighting, Dimensional Color, Texture Services and Style-Cuts. She is one of only two Redken Certified Haircolorists on the Kitsap Peninsula, and one of the most active Redken Artist/Educators in the area. This is a full service salon for men, women & children. Visit Harbor Hair Design at 8208 State Hwy. 104, Ste. 106 Kingston, WA 98346 (360)297-3499 harborhairdesign.com

In Lynn's previous salon at the Bradley Center in Downtown Kingston, Tara Curtis is proud to open Salon Sorellina. Tara has been a stylist for 10 years, operating her own "one woman" shop while working a second job and raising her darling son, Lain. Tara tells me that Lynn helped her with a bit of her set-up and left some things that she knew Tara could use. It's this kind of camaraderie that makes Kingston such a special place to do business. Tara and her team offer a full menu of salon services for men, women & children including Nail Services by Shari Hosler of Holly Mae's. Visit Salon Sorellina at 10801 State Hwy. 104 Ste. 131, Kingston, WA 98346 (360)638-6105 Salon Sorellina Kingston on Facebook
